I am Ryan Stramrod: South African, Small Business Owner, Family Man and Average Joe.

However my hobby is Ultra Extreme Open Water and Ice swimming, and for deeply personal reasons, I have undertaken some of the world's most extreme challenges. Pushing my limits and human boundaries in our planet's most inhospitable places.

This has allowed me the opportunity to stand in front of thousands of people, as an Inspirational Speaker, to share my story. With a humble hope that I may be able to change people's lives, I take my audiences on a journey with me, through story telling and strong visuals. I illustrate just how limited and governed we all are, in every aspect of our lives, by believing in our own limitations.

I WOULD LIKE TO MEET YOU ON SECRETARIES DAY. MY KEY-NOTE WILL INSPIRE YOU BE A GAME CHANGER.
